PAYMENT METHODS

DeFi Wealth accepts both USDT (BEP20) and Bitcoin as payment methods, offering users flexible options for transactions. USDT, a stablecoin on the Binance Smart Chain, provides fast and low-cost transfers, making it ideal for everyday transactions. Bitcoin, known for its widespread adoption and security, allows users to engage with the platform using a well-established cryptocurrency. This dual payment option enhances user convenience and accessibility, enabling seamless deposits and withdrawals within the DeFi Wealth ecosystem

USDT BEP20

DeFi Wealth uses USDT (BEP20) as its primary payment method, ensuring fast, secure, and low-cost transactions on the Binance Smart Chain (BSC). This allows users to easily manage and transfer their earnings on the platform

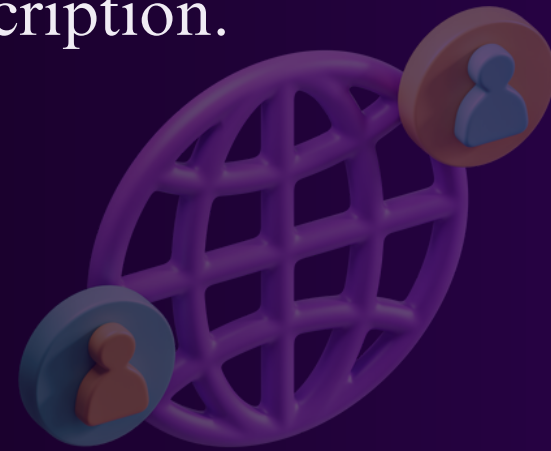

BITCOIN

DeFi Wealth accepts Bitcoin as its primary payment method, allowing users to make transactions easily and securely. This enables fast and efficient transfers while leveraging the advantages of Bitcoin's decentralized network.
